

Clara's Vintage Swimwear

Clara has three swimsuits for a hot summer day at the beach. In the 20th century, swimwear had progressed from the full coverage of the early 1900s, to designs that were actually practical for swimming. Clara has a few fashionable suits from the 1930s, 40s, and 50s. The first swimsuit is from the late 1930s, and has a fitted semi-gathered skirt with a cute anchor trim. The suit from mid-1940s is rather plain, but has some bold stripes across the chest. The swimsuit from the early 1950s is nearly form-fitting, and has some cute stripes and polka dots.
