

Clara's 1950s Summer Outfits

The 1950s were full of feminine silhouettes and bright colors. Clara has two complete, interchangeable outfits for a hot summer day. The button-up blouse and thin sweater go well with either the pleated shorts or the circle skirt. Circle skirts are the hallmark of 50's fashion, worn over fluffy petticoats to create the full shape. Clara could go barefoot, since it is summer, but if she wants, she could wear some simple shoes with a cute bow.
