

Clara's 1928 Dress with Cape

In the late 1920s, simple dresses were quite popular. Clara's dress is from about 1928, and has long, straight sleeves, a plain bodice with a simple collar, and a knee-length flared skirt. The plain styling of the dress is dressed up with a little bow and a ribbon belt with a shell buckle. A little half-cape provides style, but not much warmth. Clara also has some soft "bar" style silk slippers with big buttons and a contrasting band of trim. To finish the outfit, Clara has a floppy-brimmed cloche-style hat, with a cute ribbon and some little roses for trim.

PAPER DOLLS BY

MELINDA BOWERS

