

Clara's 1990 Bridesmaid Dress

Fashion in 1990 was a continuation of the styles of the 80s. This bridesmaid dress is an example of the more romantic style of dresses, complete with lots of lace. The puffy sleeves and dropped waist make this look like a ballerina dress. As the decade progressed, fashions became more casual, perhaps in reaction to the formality of some of the early designs.

The shoes are also from 1990. They have low heels and a twisted strap that provides a fun detail.
