

Clara's Early 1970s Calico Dress

Created in 1968, the maxi dress style was very popular by the early 1970s. Many fashion designers created dresses with the newly fashionable long skirt.

Clara's dress has a simple shape created with wide bands of elastic. Eyelet lace trims the hem. This would be a very comfortable dress to wear, due to its loose form, and the elastic used.

Clara's shoes are simple pumps, worn with tall socks. Her hair is in a simple, 70s style haircut.
