

Clara's 1993 Dropped Waist Dress

In the early 90s, dropped waists and collars were one of the many styles of dresses that were popular. Clara's dress is from 1993, and has a simple design, with a somewhat gathered knee-length skirt, and some loose-fitting sleeves. A double-layered, pointed collar adds a nice fashionable detail to the dress. Plain, low-heeled shoes were simple, and would likely be dyed to match the dress.
